Sample Question

The Court Service is an executive agency of the Lord Chancellor’s Department, providing administrative support to a number of courts and tribunals in England and Wales, including the High Court, the Crown Court and the county courts. While a judge or a judicial officer determines the outcome of the cases coming before these courts and tribunals, the staff of the Court Service carries much of the supporting administrative work out. This introduction outlines briefly the services we provide, tells you a little about what you
